This morning I called [REDACTED] to inquire as to the status of the specifications for [REDACTED] which we were supposed to receive last Friday, 21 June. As Mr. [REDACTED] was away [REDACTED] took my call saying that he had "some bad news" for me. He told me that the specs were not available last Friday, but Mr. [REDACTED] secretary informed him that the Engineers [REDACTED] have promised to have them ready to mail to [REDACTED], either Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

I informed [REDACTED] that I would be on leave the next two weeks and would appreciate reviewing these on Friday of this week. I asked if it wouldn't be possible for a special courier run to speed the delivery of these specs to us. He said this is a possibility but any further decision or planning must await [REDACTED] return tomorrow.

[REDACTED] agreed to call me tomorrow after he and John [REDACTED] have had time to discuss this with [REDACTED] and after [REDACTED] has had a chance to talk to [REDACTED]
